

MAGNITUDE

Event organized:

T-Shirt Painting Competition

Magnitude and Elements organized a T-Shirt painting competition on 26th October 2011. Eighteen teams participated for free-style painting on white t-shirts. Students covered themes from a wide array of issues viz. female infanticide, AIDS awareness, Unity and Diversity of India, Social and Political issues etc. a convergence of bright colors and master stroke by our budding artist transformed the white fabric into vibrant colorful delights. The competition was judged by Ms. Zinki Jindal and Ms. Shweta Lalwani. Teams were evaluated for their creativity, artistic skills and the slogan/ message. President Mr. Ashok Ghosh and Vice-President Ms. Rinu Ghosh encouraged the participants applauded for their artistic talents.

Winners:

First : Kriti Singh and Riya Mital

Second: Shamiet Chaddha and Apoorva Nahar

Third: Abhishek Bharadwaj and Pratik Sankhla

Debate Competition:

A British style debate competition was organized by magnitude. In this, a platform was provided to students to speak about a topic. "Is human cloning completely ethical", where students gave their views and participated enthusiastically. Our reverend Vice-Chancellor, Mr. P.C. Deka, witnessed this student driven event. The judges were Mr. David Mandepudi, and Parag Talesara. After the completion of the event Mr. Mandepudi gave some valuable information about Human Cloning.

Winners: Abrah Ahmed and Paritosh Paliwal