❖ Words of Appreciation from Leadership

Prof. (Dr.) Prithvi Yadav

Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, SPSU

"This outstanding participation on a global platform reflects the rising spirit of excellence among our students. I congratulate the entire team for bringing pride to SPSU."

Dr. Kuldeep Singh Jhala

Director, Physical Education and Sports

"Such achievements are a testimony to the holistic development we aim to nurture through sports. Kudos to all participants for their dedication and performance."

❖ Special Motivation: Miss Dutee Chand

The event was graced by the participation of Miss Dutee Chand, a renowned Indian sprinter, Olympian, and recipient of the Arjuna Award. Her presence and active involvement added immense value and prestige to the marathon, energizing and encouraging participants, especially young athletes. As a returning participant who had taken part in this prestigious event last year, she served as a special motivation for all.

❖ Significance of the Participation

- International Exposure: Opportunity to engage with athletes from across the globe.
- Inspiration from Champions: Interaction with sports icons like Dutee Chand inspired our participants to dream big.
- Health & Fitness Culture: Reinforces SPSU's commitment to promoting an active and healthy lifestyle.
- Holistic Growth: Supports the vision of nurturing well-rounded individuals through sports and co-curricular activities.

❖ Conclusion

The enthusiastic participation in this prestigious international event is a matter of immense pride for SPSU. The team's performance, dedication, and sportsmanship embody the university's values of excellence, discipline, and holistic development.

We once again extend our heartfelt congratulations to all participants and express our gratitude to the university leadership for their constant encouragement and support.

We look forward to more such opportunities where our students and faculty shine on national and international platforms.
